Meets

Meet Category Definitions:

Not Hosted:

Not a meet as such but an indication that a member will be on site but other members are welcome to come along.

Note: These will never be included in the CashBack Scheme if one is running.

Informal:

This is a hosted meet the host being a point of contact. Nothing has been organised by the host and no member should expect the host to do so. At the meet members may spontaneously decide to visit local attractions, have a barbeque or simply chat over a few drinks. Just come along and enjoy yourselves with no pressure to do anything in particular.

Organised:

This is a hosted meet the host being a point of contact. These meets have normally taken a long time to organise at the hosts own expense although you may be asked to contribute in some form. The event could range from 'Themed' through to 'Fun and Games' lasting from part of a day to the whole of the meet. Although the host would like as many members as possible to participate it is always the members choice as to whether they do so, or to what level they feel comfortable with.

Wednesday  February - Thursday  February

Sandy Balls Holiday Park - New Forest

Meet Category: Special Memorial Meet

This meet has been arranged as David's memorial meet and I will be scattering his ashes on Saturday 4 somewhere on site as this was David's wishes.

Sandy Balls was his favourite site and we went every year, in the winter and this was the last site we went to together before he died in May.

The meet open to GCC members, family and straight friends. There are people who want to show there respect and say there goodbye's from all the clubs we were involved in.

I am booked on pitch 52 if members want to be within the same area and close to the awning for coffee.

The evening get togethers will probably be in the on site pub and not the awning because of the time of year and the amount of people expected to attend.

Meet Reports

Hertford Christmas & New Year 2011/2012

Attendees: - Jason, Degsy, Alan & Eddie, Colin & Ryan, Lance & Andy, & Me (Jeff)

I arrived at site on 23rd to find Alan already in the queue, waiting to check in. The wardens were really good about pitching us all together, but sadly we were a bit far from the toilet block. Unlike caravan club sites, the water points seem to always be in the middle of the grass and not near hard standing. So wellies were the order of the day for filling up etc. That evening Eddie arrived. Christmas Eve, Jason arrived and we all helped to put up the awning.

We all joined together that night and had a few drinks and played card games

Christmas day, between us we all cooked a three course meal which was consumed with lots of wine etc Oh and yes of course we all had Santa hats on!! Once again lots of alcohol and chocolates that evening.

Boxing Day was a chilled day and just a few drinks in awning but an early night for all. Think we had all gorged and drank a bit too much.

27th Degsy arrived also Colin & Ryan visited that evening. We all got together and played Uno which is a card game with a difference.

28th Eddie had to go back to work so left really early, later Alan packed up and also left .Jason Degsy and I had a trip out to Harlow. Jason could not leave fast enough, he thought it was very chavy and hated it. That night we just had a few drinks and chatted in Jason's awning.

29th. We had a drive out to Stevenage. Even though Jason swore he didn't want to go shopping and wouldn't buy anything. Once we got into Primark, the bargains tempted him to open his wallet and shop!! We all came away from Stevenage with armfuls of shopping.

30th Lance and Andy arrived. Degsy, Jason and myself went into Hertford and had a slimming lunch from the chippy . We then went and bought food for the evening meal. That night we all got together and stuffed ourselves, then played the UNO card game again which amused Andy each time the machine threw cards out. We then went on to play Family fortunes. The car was not won as they did not get all of the top answers! At midnight after singing the traditional Auld Langs Syne we set off some Chinese Lanterns. Unfortunately we did not seem to get the hang of it. Most of them seemed to want to come back down again, in the trees! We then were all panicking in case we set the woods on fire. Fortunately they went out.

1st Jason and I did all the washing up from the night before then packed up the awning before the forecasted rain. Which decided to start half way threw taking the awning down. Lance and Andy had a drive into Hertford to check out the local attractions and to see if either a Chinese or Indian would be open that night, for us all to go out again and stuff our faces once more. Sure enough that is what we did, all piled into Lance's car and invaded the local Indian restaurant. A good feast was had by all.

Tuesday 2nd we all packed up and said our goodbyes. Whilst the meet wasn't massively attended we all enjoyed our break and welcomed in 2012 with friends. My best wishes to you all. I look forward to a new year of attending lots of meets and meeting both old and new friends. Happy 2012
